On Wednesdays, our Family Life Center Gym is opened at 4:30 for various youth, children, and adult activities. The Volunteer "Clean Crew" begins at 6:00; and Classes for children, youth, and adults all begin at 7:00.

If you are looking for a place of service, you are always needed and wanted in the rotation in the Nursery or Children's Church. We are always in need of MEN to serve the Lord in these positions too, so step right up, guys.

Our deacons have been making at least two calls, contacts, and visits per week. Bureda White is the Church Contact Secretary; and she can provide you with information regarding contacts you can make.

GIDEONS COMING

The annual mission appearance of the "Gideons, International" at our church will be Sunday Morning, September 12. It has been our joy to support this great mission work of purchasing and placing Bibles for many years now. The report will be given by one of the local Gideon members and a love offering will be received for their work. You will thrill as you hear this wonderful world-wide report of Bible placement in hospitals, motels, and jails; and New Testament give-a-ways to students, nurses, and military personnel.

THE CHILDREN ARE LISTENING

SO, LET'S MAKE IT PLAIN

(Adapted by Tom Mooty

from Internet sources)

Our children's ministries are tremendously important. Far too often, exasperated churches just "get someone" to "babysit" the children's classes in Sunday school, Vacation Bible School, and Children's church. But this is absolutely wrong! No doubt about it, the children are listening to us - and watching us. Let's don't let them down!

A little girl was talking to her teacher about whales. The teacher said it was physically impossible for a whale to swallow a human because even though it was a very large mammal its throat was very small. The little girl stated that Jonah was swallowed by a whale. Irritated, the teacher reiterated that a whale could not swallow a human; it was physically impossible. The little girl said, "When I get to heaven I will ask Jonah". The teacher asked, "What if Jonah went to hell?" The little girl replied, "Then you ask him."

A Kindergarten teacher was observing her classroom of children while they were drawing. She would occasionally walk around to see each child's work. As she got to one little girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was. The girl replied, "I'm drawing God." The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like." Without missing a beat, or looking up from her drawing, the girl replied, "They will in a minute."

A Sunday school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to "honor" thy father and mother, she asked, "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?" Without missing a beat one little boy (the oldest of a family) answered, "Thou shall not kill."

One day a little girl was sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast on her brunette head. She looked at her mother and inquisitively asked, "Mommy, why are some of your hairs white?" Her mother replied, "Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white." The little girl thought about this revelation for a while and then said, "Momma, how come ALL of grandma's hairs are white?"

The children had all been photographed, and the teacher was trying to persuade them each to buy a copy of the group picture. "Just think how nice it will be to look at it when you are all grown up and say, 'There's Jennifer, she's a lawyer,' or "That's Michael, He's a doctor. A small voice at the back of the room rang out, "And there's the teacher, she's dead."

A teacher was giving a lesson on the circulation of the blood. Trying to make the matter clearer, she said, "Now, class, if I stood on my head, the blood, as you know, would run into it, and I would turn red in the face." "Yes," the class said. "Then why is it that while I am standing upright in the ordinary position the blood doesn't run into my feet?" A little fellow shouted, "Cause your feet ain't empty."

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large pile of apples. The nun made a note, and posted on the apple tray: "Take only ONE. God is watching." Moving further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies. A child had written a note, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."

THESE ARE ACTUAL ANSWERS TO TEST QUESTIONS IN A CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

"When the three wise guys from the east side arrived, they found Jesus in a manger.

Jesus was born because Mary had an immaculate contraption.

The people who followed Jesus were the twelve decibals.

One of the possums was Matthew who was also a taximan.

Saint Paul cavorted to Christianity and preached holy acrimony, which is another name for marriage.

Christians have only one spouse, which is called monotony.

the members are the ministers; and since you are the best Christian somebody knows, and maybe even the ONLY Christian somebody knows, it surely does matter how you live in front of everybody!
