GIDEONS COMING

The annual mission appearance of the "Gideons, International" at our church will be Sunday Morning, September 12. It has been our joy to support this great mission work of purchasing and placing Bibles for many years now. The report will be given by one of the local Gideon members and a love offering will be received for their work. You will thrill as you hear this wonderful world-wide report of Bible placement in hospitals, motels, and jails; and New Testament give-a-ways to students, nurses, and military personnel.

THE CHILDREN ARE LISTENING

SO, LET'S MAKE IT PLAIN

Our children's ministries are tremendously important; and we are very thankful to all the wonderful people who work in any capacity in any of our children's ministries. Many churches just hurriedly "get someone" to "babysit" the children's classes in Sunday school, Vacation Bible School, and Children's church; thinking that it doesn't really matter anyway. But this is absolutely wrong! No doubt about it, the children are listening to us - and watching us; and they are learning from us. They learn how to act in church; how to feel about church; how to feel about marriage; how to feel about God! Their souls are in the balance; so let's not let them down!

LETTERS TO GOD FROM KIDS

(Compiled from Internet sources)

"Dear God, I think about you sometimes, even when I'm not praying. Elliot"

"Dear God, Instead of letting people die and having to make new ones, why don't you just keep the ones you got now? Jane"

"Dear God, I bet it is very hard for you to love all of everybody in the whole world. There are only 4 people in our family and I can never do it. Nan"

"Dear God, Maybe Cain and Abel would not kill each other so much if they had their own rooms. It works with my brother. Larry"

"We read that Thos Edison made light. But in Sun School they said you did it, so I bet he stole your idea. Sincerely, Donna"

"Dear God, If you let the dinasor not exstinct we would not have a country. You did the right thing. Jonathan"

"Dear God, please send Dennis Clark to a different camp this year. Peter"

"Dear God, Thank you for the baby brother, but what I prayed for was a puppy. Joyce"

"Dear God, if you watch in church on Sunday I will show you my new shoes. Mickey D"

"Dear God, please put another holiday between Christmas and Easter. There is nothing good in there now. Ginny"

"Dear God, I am American. What are you?
Robert"

"Sharia Law" Comes to the Gridiron"

(Written by Bryan Fischer; Adapted by Tom Mooty)

(American Family Association; August 16, 2010 and Internet sources)

"Sharia" ("way, path") is believed to be Allah's Law and is practiced by Muslims; although there are many differences among themselves as to exactly what it entails. Modernists, traditionalists and fundamentalists all hold different views of Sharia, as do students of different schools of Islamic thought and varying countries and cultures.

Muslims believe Sharia is derived from two primary sources, the Qur'an (Koran) and the sayings of the Islamic Prophet Muhammad. Various "secondary sources" (opinions of Islamic scholars) are used to answer questions not directly addressed in the two primary sources. The local Islamic leader's (Imam) responsibilities depend on the interpretation of Sharia. The term "Imam" commonly refers to the leader of communal prayers; but he may also be a scholar and political leader. Sharia deals with many topics addressed by secular law, including crime, politics and economics, as well as personal matters such as sexuality, hygiene, diet, prayer, and fasting.

It is a well-known and long-standing goal that Sharia law be introduced in all areas of Islamic migration; even where they are in the minority. Sharia governs personal and community affairs; and is gradually being introduced world-wide. Sharia introduction has been accompanied by controversy, violence, and even warfare.

Sharia law has now become entrenched in high school football in Dearborn, Michigan as it has caused the team to hold its football practices in the middle of the night to keep its players from committing offenses during Ramadan ("holy month"). The team practices from 11 p.m. to 4 a.m.

ESPN notes that the team is "predominantly Muslim," which means of course that every non-Muslim player and coach on this squad is forced to yield to Sharia law whether he wants to or not. He is forced to accommodate his sleeping schedule to the dictates of Islam whether he believes in the Koran or not. Their lives are being governed by Sharia law, right here in the United States of America.

So much for religious liberty in Dearborn, Michigan, and so much for the separation of mosque and school and mosque and state. Such a separation does not exist in Islamic thought, but you will hear no peeps of protest from those who normally are hyper-vigilant about transgressions of their view of the First Amendment.

This illustrates another truth about Islam. It is not a religion so much as an entire, totalitarian ideology that is determined to control every aspect of life; right down to when you can practice football.

Dearborn, Michigan has now become a Sharia-governed Muslim enclave encircled by sovereign U.S. soil. It will soon be impossible, if not already, to recognize Dearborn as a part of the United States of America.
