President George Washington's 1789 Thanksgiving Day Proclamation

WHEREAS it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor; and

WHEREAS both Houses of Congress have, by their joint committee, requested me "to recommend to the people of the United States a DAY OF PUBLIC THANKSGIVING and PRAYER, to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many and signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity peaceably to establish a form of government for their safety and happiness":

NOW THEREFORE, I do recommend and assign THURSDAY, the TWENTY-SIXTH DAY of NOVEMBER next, to be devoted by the people of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being who is the beneficent author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people of this country previous to their becoming a nation; and

For the signal and manifold mercies and the favorable interpositions of His providence in the course and conclusion of the late war; and

For the great degree of tranquility, union, and plenty which we have since enjoyed; and

For the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enable to establish Constitutions of Government for our safety and happiness, and particularly the national one now lately instituted; and

For the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed, and the means we have of acquiring and diffusing useful knowledge; and, in general:

For all the great and various favors which He has been pleased to confer upon us; and

That we may then unite in most humbly offering our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations and beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions; and

To enable us all, whether in public or private stations, to perform our several and relative duties properly and punctually; and

To render our National Government a blessing to all the people by constantly being a Government of wise, just, and constitutional laws, discreetly and faithfully executed and obeyed; to protect and guide all sovereigns and nations (especially such as have shown kindness unto us); and to bless them with good governments, peace, and concord; to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and the increase of science among them and us; and, generally to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best.

GIVEN under my hand, at the city of New York, the third day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine.

(signed) G. Washington

NEXT SUNDAY

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the celebration of the 90th birthday of "Miss Ellie" Styles in our Family Life Center between 2:00 - 4:00 pm. (No gifts, please).

RELAY FOR LIFE TEAM 2011

Angella Thomas is hard at work to lead our Church Team in the "Relay for Life" (to help find a cure for cancer) for 2011. The blanket on the front table is just a small sample of the many things she has to help raise funds for our church team. If we contribute all along, we will be able to have quite a bit to give at the Rally in June, 2011. Please remember this very worthwhile organization.

MINISTERIAL ORDINATION SERVICE

In next Sunday Evening's Service, we will be ordaining Brother Jordon Williams as a Gospel Minister. This remarkable young man is presently serving as our Youth Minister; and, while he already demonstrates Bible interest and knowledge well beyond his years, he is currently pursuing his Seminary Master's Degree by Internet Extension. Everyone, please make a special effort to attend this special service at 6:00 pm.

THE CHILDREN ARE LISTENING SO, LET'S MAKE IT PLAIN

Our Children's Church is such a blessing to have in our church. The children listen to us and watch us (even though it might not seem so). Bring your children and grandchildren to these sessions; and get involved (See Lisa and/or Dyann for information).

READ "FIVE MINUTES WITH TOM MOOTY"

Be sure to check out Brother Tom's weekly column in the local paper. If you do not get the paper, you can receive the columns regularly by clicking on the church website and following the links to the Pastor's Blog Pages: "Medicare Minister's Musings" and "Five Minutes with Tom Mooty".

And speaking of the Internet, be sure you log on to our church website at: www.webbaptistchurch.org. Bart and Sharon Ellison spend a lot of time on this project; and we need to tell people about it.
