"ISRAEL IS STILL WAITING FOR FAIR TREATMENT FROM THE U.N."

(Written by Rabbi Yechiel Echelein : Adapted by Tom Mooty)

In 1949, the United Nations voted to adopt "Res

273, which stated, "... Israel is a peace-loving State and is able and willing to carry out the obligations contained in the (United Nations) Charter." With this, Israel became a member of the United Nations.

For the fledgling Jewish state, then not quite one year old, this was seen as a victory. After the vote was taken, Israel's foreign minister Moshe Sharrett called it a great moment for the new state and for Jewish people throughout the world, and expressed the hope that it represented Israel's entrance into full "membership in the family of nations".

In retrospect, there is not much cause for celebration. Throughout its history, the U.N. has consistently sided against Israel and for Israel's enemies. It has approved viciously anti-Israel measures such as the infamous "Zionism is Racism" resolution of 1975 (which was finally repealed in 1991, but only after much protest by Israel and the U.S.) For years, Israel was denied a seat on the U.N. Security Council, though even human rights violators such as Syria, Algeria, and the Congo were seated. Of 10 emergency sessions in the U.N. General Assembly, six have been about Israel — though no emergency sessions have been called to address ethnic cleansing in Rwanda, the former Yugoslavia, or Sudan.

Even as the U.N. has worked against Israel, informed Christians have stood by her. Christians take seriously the biblical mandate to support the Jewish people and their right to live in peace and security in their homeland. People of all faiths can see Israel as an oasis of freedom in a sea of oppression.

The vote on the Palestinian statehood resolution could have a disastrous effect on Israel, and kill any chances for peace. It is clear; the U.N. does not represent that you stand for Israel, and against those who would threaten her peace and security.

Decades after its entrance into the U.N., Israel remains a peace-loving state still waiting for the fair treatment that comes from the "membership in the family of nations". Let us pray that day will come soon, and that all the world will join with Israel's friends, who know that a stand for Israel is a stand for democracy, freedom, and the rule of law, and against terror and tyranny.

With prayers for shalom, peace,

Rabbi Eckstein

VICTORY BIBLE INSTITUTE

Our Victory Bible Institute is in full swing. Brother Paul Stiefvater is currently teaching Course

OT 103 (Samuel, Kings, and Chronicles) and Brother Tom is currently teaching Course # OT 102 (Joshua, Judges, and Ruth). Upon the completion of the course plan, you can receive credit towards a diploma in "Biblical Studies" from the Victory Bible Institute in Greenville, SC; or you might be interested in simply taking the classes for the invaluable knowledge and information in the little time we have left to make a difference in this world.

Either way, the class sessions are recorded for you (at no charge) to review the material later; or make up a class you had to miss.

"PRE-REVIVAL" REVIVAL MEETING

Our church has been asked to host this meeting of the East Tennessee Baptist Association, which is under the leadership of Dr. Horace Brown.

In July of 2012 (if the Lord delays His Coming long enough), the Association will be conducting a Summer Time Crusade; and this meeting is designed to help get us started on that.

We are privileged to be able to have a different speaker to conduct the service each evening of this three-night meeting:

Sunday Evening, October 9; Brother Bobby Welch (Former Pastor of Dayton Beach First Baptist Church and Former President of the Southern Baptist Convention) will be featured. Our Church Choir will provide the special music.

On Tuesday Evening, October 10; Brother Randy Davis (Former Pastor of Morristown First Baptist and Sevierville First Baptist Churches and Current Executive Director of the Tennessee Baptist Convention) will preach. A Choir from Carson-Newman College is scheduled to sing.

For Tuesday Evening, October 11; Brother Don Pearson (Prayer Specialist for the Tennessee Baptist Convention) will speak; and the Praise Team from Cornerstone Baptist Church will provide the special music.

A nursery will be provided for cribbers, creepers, and crawlers each night. Our Children's Church will be setting up a special "Bible School" program for the children, aged 4 - Grade 4. Lisa needs your help in this big undertaking! Please tell her today what nights you can help.

Because of these three services, there will be no services here on Wednesday, October 12.

It is our sincere hope and prayer that we will have a large number of folks from the Association. We will need a full slate of greeters, ushers, and parking lot attendants.
